

I am in support of the petition by CBA to be able to call clients with an "established business relationship". Every Lender that I have ever dealt with will stop calling me if I request it. I question the Attorney General's estimate that this could lead up to an additional 800,000,000 phone calls in 18 months and I was solicited to sign this petition because I registered on the "do not call" list for Indiana.